

Call for papers

SNB-CIF Conference on Cryptoassets and Financial Innovation 29 May 2020 – Zurich, Switzerland

The Swiss National Bank (SNB) and the Center for Innovative Finance (CIF) of the University of Basel are inviting paper submissions for a conference on Cryptoassets and Financial Innovation, to be held in Zurich on 29 May 2020.

Possible topics include, but are not limited to:

- Impact of DLT technology and fintech on banking, financial markets and financial market infrastructures
- Private vs. central bank issued digital currencies
- Trusted digital identities and financial innovation
- Emergence of new trading technologies, implications on market functioning and asset tokenization

Authors are asked to submit their paper (English; preliminary or full version, including abstract, JEL codes, keywords and references) including the full name and contact information of the author(s). Paper proposals are due by 31 January 2020, and should be sent to finance.research@snb.ch.

Organising Committee:

Aleksander Berentsen, Center for Innovative Finance (CIF), University of Basel

Thomas Moser, Swiss National Bank

Christopher Waller, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis

Fabian Schär, Center for Innovative Finance (CIF), University of Basel

Sébastien Kraenzlin, Swiss National Bank

Andreas Fuster, Swiss National Bank