Instruction sheet on exchanging recalled banknotes

The following banknotes were recalled on 1 May 2000 and are thus no longer legal tender. However, they can be exchanged at the Swiss National Bank (SNB) at full nominal value for 20 years from the date of recall, i.e. until 30 April 2020. You can exchange the banknotes in person at an SNB counter or send them to us by post.

1. Exchange at one of our counters

Swiss banknotes which have been recalled but can still be exchanged should be taken to one of the branch offices or agencies of the SNB, which are all located in Switzerland.

2. Exchange by post

Check with your post office on the proper insurance for your shipment. The SNB accepts no liability whatsoever for the shipment.

You can send your banknotes to the following address:

Swiss National Bank
Cash division
Customer Support and Administration
Bundesplatz 1
CH-3003 Berne

The countervalue of the recalled banknotes will be transferred to your bank or postal account.

Please provide your exact postal address. To transfer the amount to your account and to avoid any possible charges, or at least to reduce them, we need the following additional details:

Switzerland: Your address (surname, first name, address) as well as the number and/or IBAN of a bank account held in your name, with the exact address of the bank holding the account (BC no., if possible)

Europe: Your address (surname, first name, address, country) as well as the IBAN of a bank account held in your name, with the BIC (SWIFT address) of the bank holding the account

Other countries: Your address (surname, first name, address, country) as well as the number of a bank account held in your name, with the address and BIC of the bank holding the account

IBAN = International Bank Account Number

BC no. = Bank clearing number

BIC = Bank Identifier Code

If you have questions concerning the required details, please contact the bank holding your account, which will certainly be able to assist you.

In exceptional cases and upon request, we can send you the countervalue of the recalled banknotes by post in the form of valid banknotes. Please note that shipment of cash in Switzerland is only insured up to the amount of CHF 500. For shipment abroad, no liability is assumed. The recipient bears the risk (in Switzerland, for amounts larger than CHF 500; abroad for all amounts).

Important notice

In order to fulfil its duty of due diligence with regard to combating money laundering, the SNB may make the exchange of banknotes dependent on further clarifications. These may include, for instance, identification of the contractual partner as well as establishment of the beneficial owner's identity or other additional information.

If you have any specific questions, please contact the Cash division's Customer Support and Administration team directly (+41 58 631 07 57 or bargeld@snb.ch).
