Chairman of the Governing Board retires

The Chairman of the Governing Board of the Swiss National Bank, Hans Meyer, announced his retirement as of the end of this year. The reason he gave for his decision was that he was certain it would be in the overall interest if the new Governing Board could begin its work already at the beginning of next year. Hans Meyer said that he had dedicated his entire career to the National Bank and that his over thirty years of service had been a most rewarding experience both on a personal and professional level. He would, therefore, leave the National Bank with a feeling of satisfaction and gratitude.
